WELCOME TO YOUR LATEST NEWSLETTER!

The April Full Council meeting was my last as Chair of the Parish Council. Although I will open the May meeting which is our Annual General Meeting, I will be handing over to someone else for the final year before elections in May 2024.

During my five years as Chair, I have had my fair share of challenges, most recently with the Cemex application. Unfortunately, there have been further delays with the application with the most likely date of the Regulatory Committee meeting now being in June. The extra time gives us the opportunity to plan our media campaign for the week that the report is published in more detail and to also make sure that residents are aware of the report's recommendations, the time of the meeting, and how to either attend or join online. We also continue to work closely with Eastleigh Borough Council, local parish councils and our MP to make sure that we present a united front in opposing the application.

Our weekly messages on Cemex will continue, although at this stage there is very little activity – as a result there have been fewer meetings with the Hamble Peninsula Residents Group, but these will start again as we get nearer to the Regulatory Committee meeting.

On a happier note, we have the long weekend in early May to celebrate King Charles III's coronation. We would love to receive pictures and images of how Hamble celebrates the event for inclusion in our next edition – so whether you're having a get together with your neighbours, you're out celebrating at one of our many eateries, or just keeping it in the family, send us a record of your event and help to create the memories of the future!

With that in mind, thank you for your support during my time in office and I look forward to reading the new Chair's piece from May!

Cllr Simon Hand

Chair of Hamble Parish Council

WE NEED YOU!

We will be sending out a final Cemex update to all residents as soon as Hampshire County Council's report is published. To ensure this update reaches residents as quickly as possible, we would be very grateful for help in hand-delivering it throughout Hamble.

If you could spare some time to help us, please email office@hambleparishcouncil.gov.uk with your address and contact details. We anticipate we will need help between 7-10 June (although this may be subject to change depending on the date of the Regulatory Committee meeting). Thank you in advance.

FAMILY ACTIVITY DAY AT THE HAMBLE PENINSULA TRAILS

To mark the partial opening of the new trails around the Hamble Peninsula, Eastleigh Borough Council organised family activity sessions around the routes in Hamble-le-Rice, Hound and Bursledon.

The sun came out on the first day of the Easter holidays as families were invited along to take part in some fun and educational activities to learn a bit about the nature and history of the local area.

Children were given mirrors to hold as they walked along the trail to experience how a squirrel or bird might view the area, they were also asked to find a stick that looked like it could be something else and search for 'treasure' on the beach.

Once they'd collected some of the treasure that had washed up on the shores, they attempted to make creations with plaster of paris, although the sea breeze made this difficult.

Some of the Parish posts, wayfinding markers and maps for the new Hamble Peninsula Trails are now ready for families to discover with more being installed in the coming weeks.

SUPPORT WITH THE COST OF LIVING CRISIS: A GUIDE FROM THE CITIZENS ADVICE BUREAU

If you're struggling to make ends meet, here's what you need to know:

Help with school costs

If you're on a low income or claim Universal Credit, you might be able to get free school meals for your children. You can apply for free school meals on gov.uk. If you qualify, you might be able to get other help with school costs – and your child's school might get extra money. You might also be able to get help from your local education authority with some costs such as uniforms, school activities and school transport.

Visit <https://bit.ly/3H05WVg>

Healthy Start vouchers and free vitamins

If you're on a low income and you're at least 10 weeks pregnant or have a child under 4 years old, you might be able to get free vitamins and Healthy Start vouchers for milk, fruit and vegetables and infant formula milk. Ask your midwife or health visitor if you might be eligible. You could also call the Healthy Start helpline on 0345 607 6823 or check online: <https://bit.ly/3AcZ6aT>

Grants to help you pay off your energy debts

If you're in debt with your energy supplier, you might be able to get a grant to help pay off those debts. If your supplier doesn't offer grants, you might be able to get one from the British Gas Energy Trust: <https://bit.ly/40r7Nce>

Agreeing a payment plan with your energy supplier

If you're struggling to pay your energy bills you should tell your supplier that you want to pay through a payment plan, which will cover what you owe plus an amount for your current use. You'll pay fixed amounts over a set period of time, so you can pay what you can afford. Your supplier has to take into account how much you can afford and how much energy you'll use in the future.

Case study

A pension age client came to us for help maximising her income. She had tried in the past but with English not being her first language, found the application process challenging. We ran the figures and concluded that our client should be in receipt of Pension Credit.

We supported her to apply and get a 3 month backdate, improving her weekly budget by £177.10. We then discovered that she had in fact applied some time ago, but the application had stalled so we assisted her to challenge this. Our perseverance paid off, with the client being awarded a £10,000 back payment in addition to her weekly amount. The client was delighted!

HELLO HAMBLE HABITANTS

I recently went to a school reunion and for some reason somebody decided to invite a load of old people!

Hamble has a fascinating history that sometimes is in danger of being forgotten or literally lost to the sea. One such part of history is the Caddick Well.

This natural water source is located at Westfield Common and for hundreds of years it was used to supply vessels anchored offshore. Crews from a whole range of water vessels would fill their freshwater casks before heading off to sea and very likely numerous battles. This spring was made into a well, known as Caddick Well. It was once regarded as a 'holy well' and bottles of this water were sent far and wide for its holy or medicinal qualities. Caddick Well used to bear the inscription 'Let him that thirsted drink this water' on its surrounding stonework which was erected by the Yorke family. Unfortunately, the brickwork used to create the well has long since been eroded by the natural elements, although today at low tide, water from the spring can still be seen running across the beach.

Springtime is the season of new growth and every year bluebells transform woodlands across the country into a delicate sea of blue.

One of the nation's most loved wildflowers, the bluebell is also an indicator of ancient woodlands. The bluebell has held a treasured place in the hearts of British people for centuries. This delicate wildflower has played an influential role in folk culture too. Many myths surround the bluebell, although for such a heart-lifting flower the folklore is rather gloomy. There was a belief that bluebells were used in witches' potions. Others believed that anyone who wanders into a ring of bluebells will fall under fairy enchantment, or that anyone who hears the ringing of the flower's bell will be visited by a malicious fairy and die soon after.

- Almost half the world's bluebells are found in the UK – they're relatively rare elsewhere.
- It is against the law to intentionally pick, uproot or destroy bluebells.

- Bluebells were not often used medicinally but legend has it that they were used by 13th-century monks to treat snakebites and leprosy – something of a kill or cure remedy given that the bulb is poisonous.
- On the other hand, present-day researchers are looking into the bluebell's highly effective animal and insect repellent properties. There's even the possibility that certain bluebell extracts could be used to combat HIV and cancer.

If you'd like a bluebell walk in Hamble, check out Westfield Common, Heather Gardens or Woodpecker Walk.

Until next time....

CORONATION PARADE POST OFFICE ALL SET FOR THE CORONATION WITH DECORATIONS GALORE!

Aptly named Coronation Parade Post Office in Hamble is decorated ready for King Charles III's Coronation in May. Mitu Daga, Postmistress for Coronation Parade Post Office has put up decorations galore inside the branch to mark the historic occasion at the branch at 5 Coronation Parade, Hamble.

Mitu said: "With the name of my branch I really had to go to town to mark the Coronation, so I've got flags, bunting, balloons and a crown inside."

"I have been planning this as I was inspired by the talented knitter who last year created a magnificent post box topper to mark the Queen's Platinum Jubilee.

I never found who it was. I really wanted to find out so that I could give them a hug and say thank you. It brought such joy to the community and lot of people wanted to have their photo taken beside it.

People now come to my Post Office and there are lots of red, white and blue decorations everywhere.

All the Coronation decorations really lift people's spirits."

HELLO, I'M A DANDELION!

A lot of people call me a weed but I'm a friend and come to help you!

My flowers are the first food for insects after hibernation and unlike most other plants, I have pollen AND nectar, not merely one OR the other! And I am generous with them!

When you see me, remember that I'm the ONLY one who can grow in that particular spot. Because:

- Either the soil is too compact/hard/stomped and I want to loosen it for you with my roots.
- Or there is too little calcium in the soil – don't worry, I will replenish that for you with the dying of my leaves.
- Or the soil is too acidic, but I will also improve that for you if you give me the chance.

I'm here because your soil needs my help so best you let me grow without disturbing me! When everything is fixed, I will disappear again, I promise! Are you trying to remove me prematurely with my root? However meticulous you are,

I will return 2x as strong! Just until your soil is improved.

I am one of the first bloomers in spring so I will announce spring/summer for you. During the day when it's hot, I open my flowers but in the evening when it cools off I close them again quickly. In fact, if it's not hot enough during the day I won't open them at all!

My flowers are even delicious for you people by the way. I used to be called honey (or gold) of the poor because my flowers are so sweet in jam, sauce or salad! The internet is full of recipes – check them out.

Wait until the end of May or later before you start picking and even then, don't pick everything yet!

The biodiversity and bees will be very grateful!

HAMBLE LADIES GROUP

PANIC. Don't panic Mr Mainwaring! It will be alright on the night! (showing my age here).

Well, we didn't panic, and it was alright on the afternoon after all. We were contacted by David Pearson from Hamble Youth Club Pan Disability Football Team on the day before our meeting informing us that he had unfortunately tested positive for Covid and wouldn't be able to come along to our meeting. We have donated £50 towards the football team.

After a few quick phone calls between committee members, we decided that we would give our members a quiz to do, and they could relax doing this over a cuppa and chat. We had over 42 ladies turn up for the meeting, two guests, and three new members who all seemed to thoroughly enjoy the afternoon testing their brains. It was an afternoon of fun and good company. As one new member said, beats sitting indoors just watching the TV. Glad to know we have our uses!

Our next meeting is on Tuesday 9 May, when we will be celebrating the King's Coronation with an 'indoor street party' with music performed by Simon Gardner on piano (brave man), silly games, a quiz, and refreshments. Dress code – either a crown or tiara – handmade and there will be a prize for the best one. No pressure then!

We start at 2pm – no entry before 1.45pm just for this meeting to give us time to get ready. Priory Centre, Hamble Church. Come along and enjoy a fun afternoon. I look forward to seeing everyone.

UPDATE FROM THE MERCURY LIBRARY AND COMMUNITY HUB

It has been a very busy time organising group activities, fundraising, and welcoming visitors and some new volunteers to the Mercury. The 'Bring and Buy' raised a staggering £550 for the Turkish/Syrian Earthquake Appeal. Other events are being planned so keep your eye on our Facebook page or the noticeboard outside the Mercury so you don't miss out.

Many will have seen our delightful Easter window display featuring an abundance of chicks, bunnies, daffodils, exquisitely decorated eggs, and a tier of delicious looking cakes! A big thanks to everyone who worked so hard knitting, sewing, and crafting and to the window team for creating such a colourful scene. The theme continued with a morning of Children's Storytelling with Shirley which ended with an Easter Egg Hunt. It was well supported with 15 children and their families attending. Thank you, Shirley, for another successful event.

Now that Spring has arrived the gardening team, led by Jan, has been busy getting the patio and garden area shipshape after a very wet spell of weather. It's a lovely quiet space to sit when the sun shines and read the papers, kindly donated by the Coop each day. If you prefer a book there are well stocked shelves in the library, both fiction and non-fiction.

Do drop in to see us, you will be given a very warm welcome.

RYA COMES OF AGE

The RYA comes of age! 21 years ago, in April 2002, The Princess Royal, Princess Anne, opened the Royal Yachting Association's purpose-built headquarters at Ensign Way, Hamble.

HAMBLE LOCAL HISTORY SOCIETY

A Rare Hamble Letter

In June 1915, during the First World War, Basil Lubbock sent a letter from India where he was serving in the Army to Alf Dornom his skipper and chauffeur at Hamble.

He started by writing: "Dornom, I am writing this letter on birch bark as I have no writing paper being in camp 12,000ft above the sea with snow all round " He went on to say about his time in India and to ask about Alf's and other Hamble families, plus his concern regarding news of the village being spoilt by the flying people.

Basil Lubbock moved into Manor House in 1913 and was a writer of nautical books such as 'Round the Horn before the Mast' about his experience sailing on a four-masted barque. He was the first Commodore of Hamble River Sailing Club and he built and moved into Mere House in 1923.

Alf Dornom was skipper and chauffeur to some of the owners of the large houses in Hamble. He started his own boat business in the early 1930s operating from the foreshore and was the Cruising Association's Boatman for the area. Alf was one of the founder members of Hamble River Sailing Club and Captain of the Fire Brigade in the 1930s.

The letter was kept by his grandson, former ferryman Ray Sedgwick, which has now been given to Hampshire Record Office for safe storage and the public to see.

It said that it was of significant value on archival grounds, and they had nothing like it given it had been written on birch bark.

The next Society meeting will be on Thursday 8 June with a talk about 'Hamble Shops'.

HAMBLE FLOWER CLUB

We meet every second Monday of the month at Hamble Memorial Hall, usually at 1.30pm, unless we are running an all-day workshop which usually happens in November. We stage demonstrations, workshops, and occasionally talks, all based around the art of Flower Arranging. We belong to a National Association called NAFAS which arranges competitions and shows all over the country.

We also run classes for beginners and improvers every third Monday at the Roy Underdown Pavilion (beginners 1-3pm, improvers 3-5pm). These classes are open to all, as are our meetings at the Memorial Hall. We are a friendly bunch and welcome visitors with open arms.

We do not have a meeting in May, because of the Coronation and associated Bank Holidays.

On Monday 12 June at the Memorial Hall we have Graham King, a famous National Demonstrator, coming in to give us a spectacular Floral Demonstration called 'Journey to Creativity'. Put the date in your diary – one not to be missed.

On Monday 10 July we have Paul McNeil coming to give us an interesting talk on 'DNA Journey'.

Our Area Show will be at the New Forest Show in Brockenhurst this year between 25-28 July. Don't forget to visit the floral marque where some of our members will be exhibiting.

HAMBLE CONSERVATION VOLUNTEERS

Although the bird breeding season has brought an end to our scrub clearance for this year, we are fully occupied on other tasks. The impending arrival of cattle on Hamble

Common brings urgency to our role in maintaining fences and cleaning drinking troughs. The warmer weather always brings an increase in visitors to Hamble and sadly a small proportion of these leave behind evidence of their visit in the form of rubbish. The task of keeping Hamble clean is continuous and we welcome anyone who can help us collect this debris which can be harmful to wildlife, pets, and children.

Our annual programme of tasks is displayed on our website and noticeboards posted around the Common. Please note that the meeting place for the parish tasks is at the Roy Underdown Pavilion at SO31 4RN whereas beach cleans and Eastleigh tasks meet at the School Lane car park.

OUT IN THE FRESH AIR THIS SPRING? BE TICK AWARE!

With Spring upon us and many of us enjoying the sunshine and fresh air, make sure you stay 'tick aware', whether in urban and rural parks and gardens, or open countryside.

Ticks are tiny spider-like insects and are at their most active in Spring and Summer.

The best way to avoid being bitten by ticks when out walking is to keep to footpaths and avoid long grass. Other advice to people walking in areas known to have a high tick population is to:

- Wear appropriate clothing (a long-sleeve shirt and trousers tucked into your socks)
- Use an insect repellent
- Wear light coloured fabrics that may help you spot a tick on your clothes
- Inspect your skin for ticks regularly and at the end of the day, including your head, neck and skin folds (armpits, groin and waist)

- Check your children's head and neck areas, including their scalp
- Check that pets do not bring ticks into your home in their fur.

If you do get bitten by a tick, removing it quickly and correctly can help to reduce any potential risk.

The safe way to remove a tick is to use a pair of fine-tipped tweezers, or an easy-to-use device which can be purchased from pharmacies or vets. Then:

- Grasp the tick as close to the skin as possible. Pull upwards slowly and firmly, as mouth parts left in the skin can cause a local infection
- Once removed, apply antiseptic to the bite area and keep an eye on it for several weeks for any changes

Contact your GP if you begin to feel unwell or develop a circular red skin rash, often described as a bull's-eye rash, and remember to tell them that you were bitten by a tick.

CORONATION FEATURE

CORONATION QUICHE RECIPE

A deep quiche with a crisp, light pastry case and delicate flavours of Spinach, Broad Beans and fresh Tarragon. Eat hot or cold with a green salad and boiled new potatoes – perfect for a Coronation Big Lunch!

x1 20cm Flan Tin | Serves 6

Ingredients

Pastry

125g plain flour
Pinch of salt
25g cold butter, diced
25g lard
2 tablespoons milk
Or 1 x 250g block of ready-made shortcrust pastry

Filling

125ml milk
175ml double cream
2 medium eggs
1 tablespoon chopped fresh tarragon
Salt and pepper
100g grated cheddar cheese
180g cooked spinach, lightly chopped
60g cooked broad beans or soya beans

Method

- To make the pastry...
 - Seve the flour and salt into a bowl; add the fats and rub the mixture together using your finger tips until you get a sandy, breadcrumb like texture.
 - Add the milk a little at a time and bring the ingredients together into a dough.
 - Cover and allow to rest in the fridge for 30-45 minutes
- Lightly flour the work surface and roll out the pastry to a circle a little larger than the top of the tin and approximately 5mm thick.

- Line the tin with the pastry, taking care not to have any holes or the mixture could leak. Cover and rest for a further 30 minutes in the fridge.
- Preheat the oven to 190°C.
- Line the pastry case with greaseproof paper, add baking beans and bake blind for 15 minutes, before removing the greaseproof paper and baking beans.
- Reduce the oven temperature to 160°C.
- Beat together the milk, cream, eggs, herbs and seasoning.
- Scatter 1/2 of the grated cheese in the blind-baked base, top with the chopped spinach and beans and herbs, then pour over the liquid mixture.
- If required gently give the mixture a delicate stir to ensure the filling is evenly dispersed but be careful not to damage the pastry case.
- Sprinkle over the remaining cheese. Place into the oven and bake for 20-25 minutes until set and lightly golden.
